HEBA HEARTBEAT

Hello,

We hope you had a good summer with the opportunity to take some time out to be refreshed.

As we start a new season, already there is so much for us to be praising about with all that is happening nationally and overseas and further afield with the devastation being caused by the Amazon fires and Hurricane Dorian.

With these in mind, we hope you will find plenty in this issue to encourage you in your prayers for the nations and for the Church around us. We thank God for everything He is at this moment by special request of those organisations.)

You can also find the Report of the Directors and Financial Statements Here.

Every blessing,
Karen

RM's MESSAGE

"See, I am doing a new thing!
Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?
I am making a way in the desert and streams in the wasteland."
Isaiah 43:19

I know that has now been again on 1st January, but over the years I've been blessed with this verse throughout the year. I've had it on my desk, on my wall, on my bedroom door, on the fridge, on the back of emails and on my signature. I've had it on my mind, in my heart and on my lips.

Anyway, I have had three words of the Psalmist on my heart over the Summer, namely, "I will sing unto the Lord" (Psalm 104:33), "I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live" (Psalm 146:2) and "I will sing unto the Lord" (Psalm 13:6). Why? Because I have been singing unto the Lord as long as I live and I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live. I will sing unto the Lord because He has been so good to me. I will sing unto the Lord because He has been so faithful to me. I will sing unto the Lord because He has been so kind to me. I will sing unto the Lord because He has been so merciful to me. I will sing unto the Lord because He has been so gracious to me. I will sing unto the Lord because He has been so generous to me. I will sing unto the Lord because He has been so loving to me.

Well, that is not entirely quite true, and I need to be honest, humble and repentant that they are true to God the Architect and all of Creation! I will sing unto the Lord because He has been so faithful to me. I will sing unto the Lord because He has been so kind to me. I will sing unto the Lord because He has been so merciful to me. I will sing unto the Lord because He has been so gracious to me. I will sing unto the Lord because He has been so generous to me. I will sing unto the Lord because He has been so loving to me.

As the holiday period starts to shake, and we shall ride the new term, I wonder if the Lord is saying to you, "See, I am doing a new thing!" Perhaps you have been in a rut, or a routine, or a habit, or a pattern, or a way of doing things that has become stale, boring, unfruitful, unproductive, unhelpful, unhealthy, unhelpful, unhelpful, unhelpful
